

PURE CREATION MENTORING PROGRAM -2023 NORTHERN HEMISPHERE with Rachel Blackman

A year long mentoring program to support you to make what you want from a sense of purpose rooted in self - sustainability and creative agency.

The Pure Creation Program tracks potent points in the solar year and is about listening to the intrinsic laws of how creation happens in nature, to help us grow what we want from a place of enjoyment and sustainability.

You will learn self mentoring tools, how to work with unconscious influences, imaginative resources, ritual, how to listen to your own wise council and receive the council of wise ones.

You will learn to refine your somatic sensitivity, become more intuitive with the wise council of the planet and lean into the resources of the group in your quest to create what you want to make in and with the world.

We meet monthly one on one and monthly as a group over a 12 month period.

The aim of the year is to support you to identify your unique offer and bring it to the world from a place of integration, self sovereignty and planetary honouring.

'Rachel seamlessly weaves the numinous and the deeply grounded together to provide a place for deep exploration. There is no bullshit here, just honest, truthful and sensitive spaceholding.'

Sara Duigou

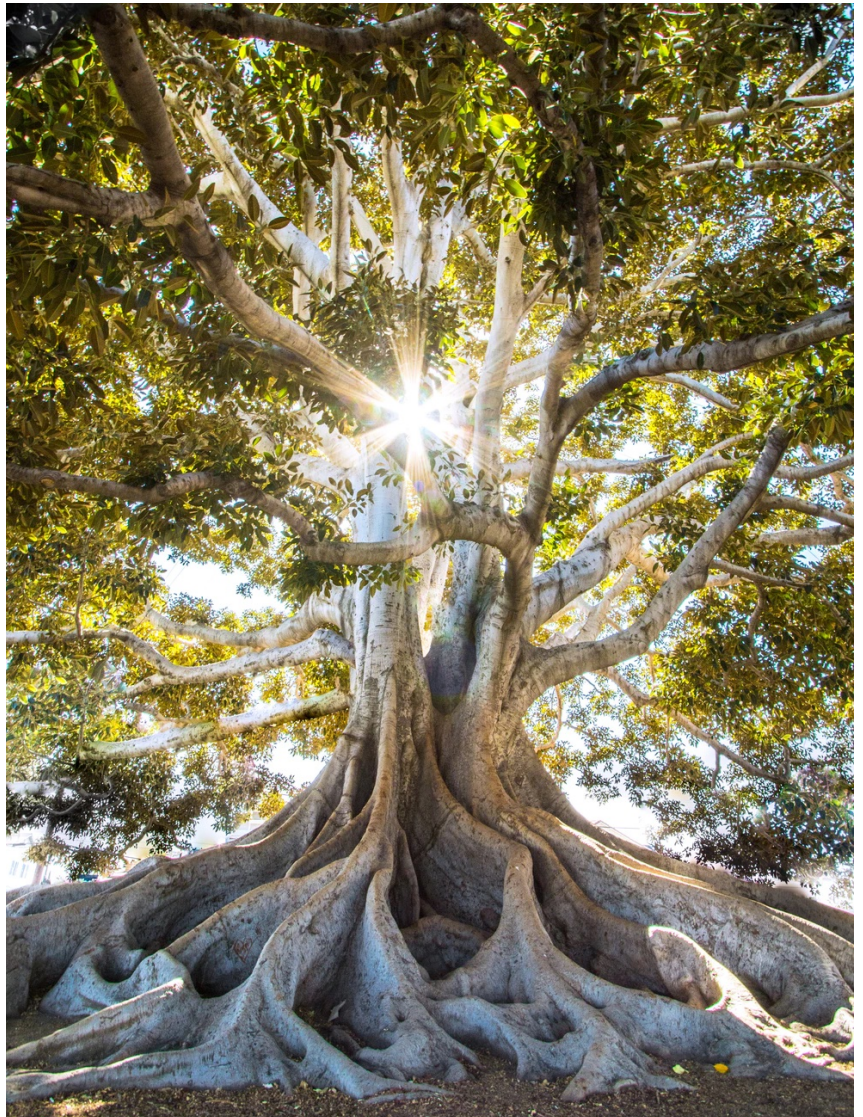

Organic Intelligence Coach, Embodiment Practitioner

'With Rachel's support, I have cultivated a deep connection with my creative potential, befriending my insecurities and vulnerabilities. I feel much more courageous in offering my work to people, free from 'predefined' forms, labels and ideas. It has become clear to me what areas of work I want to exist in, what audience I want to engage with, while remaining rooted in the connection with myself.'

- Sandra Gojić

Embodiment Trainer, Movement Teacher

'This work is rich, full of soul, deep and beautifully generative. (Rachel) helps you descend into your own creative nourishment and then supports you to give rise to that which wishes to be born specifically through you'.

Please note that the Pure Creation program assumes a level of personal resourcefulness and capacity. Receiving support to move into our gifts and reconnecting with Quest can stir up our 'stuff', so having some form of contemplative practice or therapeutic support through this process is highly recommended. Although this program may have therapeutic benefits, it is not a replacement for therapy.
